

What are the key benefits of 0845 numbers?

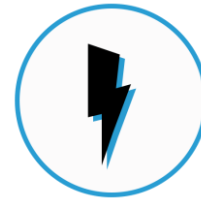

Attract new business from outside your local geographic area with the lo-call service

Give your potential customers the reassurance that you are an established and professional organisation

You can instantly re-route your incoming calls to any landline or mobile phone number using cloud based control

As it is hosted in the cloud you have built in disaster recovery in case of emergencies within cloud based control

0845 numbers are non-geographic so you'll attract new business from outside your local area

You can keep your 0845 number for life even if you relocate your business to another premises

Choose an 0845 number and you do not have to pay to divert to a landline, helping you manage your costs

0845 numbers are completely trackable and you can access call stats online in real time, helping with marketing

Choose a memorable 0845 number and callers will be able to recall it with ease which is great for referrals

0845 numbers are well recognised by the UK public giving you that local feel, but keeping a national presence